1. The group of women who organized the Union de Mujeres Espanolas (Union of Spanish Women), as reported in [REDACTED] has now changed the title to Union de Mujeres de la Argentina (Union of Argentine Women). Late in July elections were held to select officers for the group. The newly appointed Secretary General is Fanny J. de Edelman, an acknowledged Communist, feminine delegate to the last National Congress of the Argentine Communist Party (CA), a member of the Feminine Committee of the PCA, and a frequent contributor to the Party organs, La Hora and Orientacion.
2. Other officers elected include: President: Mane Bernardo; Vice Presidents: Vicenta M. de Acosta, Maria Elena Fleitas, and Sara Garay; Treasurer: Dolores Gutierrez.
3. One of the first acts of the group was to send cables of greetings and pledges of support to Dolores Ibarruri, Spanish Communist leader in France, and Vaillant Couturier, French Communist Deputy. The group also presented a plea to the Argentine Foreign Minister Bramuglia, requesting that he intercede with the Spanish authorities for Agustin Zorua, a Communist now in prison in Spain.
